

PETROLEUM TECHNICIAN RESUME

Summary:

An individual whose work experience is focused on measuring and recording physical and geological conditions in oil or gas wells; determining petroleum and mineral content; collecting information about oil and gas well drilling operations, geological and geophysical prospecting; and determine land or lease contracts.

Professional Experience:

Petroleum Technician January 2007 – Present
CBE Inc., Chicago, IL

Responsibilities:

- Inspected and monitored oil production, gas, and mineral wells for compliance with applicable regulations.
- Investigated hydrogen sulfide odor complaints.
- Maintained permanent records and maps on each well and treatment and storage facility in order to measure hydrogen sulfide levels.

Petroleum Assistant Technician May 2004 – December 2006
EPCO, Creal Springs, IL

Responsibilities:

- Prepared mining plans for the extraction of rock, sand and gravel.
- Assisted the petroleum technician.

Petroleum Technician Trainee February 1999 – May 2004
Honeywell, McCook, IL

Responsibilities:

- Inspected and monitored oil production, gas, and mineral wells for compliance with applicable regulations.
- Investigated hydrogen sulfide odor complaints.
- Maintained permanent records and maps on each well and treatment and storage facility in order to measure hydrogen sulfide levels.

Petroleum Assistant Technician May 2004 – December 2006
EPCO, Creal Springs, IL

Education:

Associate Degree in Petroleum Engineering
Rice University, TX, 1999

Skills:

- Great knowledge of methods of prevention and control of hydrogen sulfide
- Exceptional knowledge of petroleum field equipment and machinery
- Profound knowledge of drilling machine operations
- Deep knowledge of excavation and earthwork procedures
- Strong knowledge of groundwater table levels
- Excellent interpersonal skills

Awards and Affiliations:

Member, Y-OPA (Your Own Personnel Assistant)
Member, Future Starts Today! Customer Service

Build your Resume Now

