
Plant Scientist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Plant Scientist position that offers an immediate challenge, career opportunity and advancement.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Highly experienced in plant breeding, hybrid development and research studies
 - Profound knowledge of plant biology, metabolism and phytochemistry
 - Operational knowledge of using MS Office, bioinformatics tools, and database systems
 - Familiarity with GMP, Quality Management and safety regulations
 - Ability to operate and control agricultural machinery and research equipment
 - Ability to collect, analyze and interpret research data and results
-

Professional Experience:

Plant Scientist
FibroGen, Inc., Plano, TX
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Grew and cultivated plant breeds in bulks for research studies.
- Collected plant samples and conducted experimental studies on them.
- Researched experimental hybrids and assisted in production of inbreeds.
- Produced and delivered high quality yield and agronomic data.
- Operated and maintained assigned vehicles and equipments, safely and efficiently.
- Interpreted and met all applicable government regulations and safety requirements.

Plant Scientist
Vanasse Hangen Brustlin, Inc., Plano, TX
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Investigated and studied breeding, physiology, genetics and management of assigned plant breeds.
 - Conducted experiments and developed and improved various crop varieties.
 - Oversaw and assisted in daily operations of greenhouses, plant fields and seed rooms.
 - Drafted research protocols and prepared technical reports and summaries, efficiently.
 - Planted and grew required breeding lines of plants and crops for research.
 - Educated and counseled farmers and students on proper breed cultivation methods.
-

Education:

PhD in Agronomy & Soil Science
University of South Florida, Tampa, FL

Build your Resume Now