
PLASTIC SURGEON RESUME

Summary:

A medical doctor whose specialty is in performing surgery to correct deformities, repair injuries, misalignments and deformities especially in the face; performs thorough examination of patients to verify necessity of operation and be able to estimate possible risks to patient; determines and recommends the best operational procedure that would leave minimal and unrecognizable scars; reviews medical and historical reports of patient's general physical conditions before providing diagnosis and prescriptions; studies skin reactions to medications and their association in the genetic history of patients; ensured that the instruments, equipment and surgical setup are clean and safe or in accordance to the proper septic and aseptic methods and disposal.

Professional Experience:

Senior Plastic Surgeon January 2006-Present
Healthpoint, Ltd., Chicago, IL

Responsibilities:

- Repaired injuries, corrected deformities, improved and restored patients' functions and prevented diseases from happening.
- Examined patients to determine necessity of surgery.
- Provided appropriate surgical procedures and treatment.
- Performed surgery on the face, mouth and jaw area, as well as those frequently exposed.
- Used established surgical techniques during operations.

Surgeon May 2004-February 2006
American Society of Plastic Surgeons, Arlington Heights, IL

Responsibilities:

- Analyzed patient's medical history, allergic reactions, current physical condition, and performed preliminary tests to verify records and be able to determine and recommend the best procedure.
- Prescribed pre-operative treatments and procedures, such as recommendation and use of sedatives, antibiotics Prepared, sterilized and treated patient's operative area.
- Directed nurses, assistants, specialists, residents and other medical staffs' on the help needed for the procedure and coordinated subsequent steps to be undertaken to the attending physician.
- Discussed recommended procedures, surgical risks and expected outcomes to patients and had them sign waiver and approval forms before procedure is made.

Surgeon Intern February 2006- May 2004
American Society of Plastic Surgeons, Arlington Heights, IL

Responsibilities:

- Repaired injuries, corrected deformities, improved and restored patients' functions and prevented diseases from happening.
- Examined patients to determine necessity of surgery.
- Provided appropriate surgical procedures and treatment.
- Performed surgery on the face, mouth and jaw area, as well as those frequently exposed.
- Used established surgical techniques during operations.

Surgeon May 2004-February 2006
American Society of Plastic Surgeons, Arlington Heights, IL

Education:

Bachelor of Surgery, Rice University, TX, 1999

Skills:

- Ten+ years of extensive experience as a plastic surgeon
 - Knowledge of all required medical information and techniques to adequately provide care, recommendations and treatments in line with plastic surgery
 - Expertise in the facial orientation, positioning and structure
 - Ability to use scientific rules and methods to solve problems
 - Able to do complex, pressure-driven and critical surgical operations smoothly
-

Awards and Affiliations:

Member, The American Board of Plastic Surgery
Member, American Society of Plastic Surgeons

Build your Resume Now