

---

Play Therapist Resume

---

Job Objective

Seeking to become a valued member of your organization as Play Therapist.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Extensive experience in providing play therapeutic services
  - Strong knowledge of different kinds of plays
  - Skilled in working with special needs children
  - Amazing ability to prepare patient records
  - Remarkable ability to address clinical issues
  - Immense ability to conduct regular meetings with medical teams
-

Professional Experience:

---

Play Therapist
River Pediatric Therapies, Fort Yates, ND
August 2007 – Present

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Determined physical and emotional needs of patients.
  - Conducted play therapy sessions individually or in groups.
  - Coordinated with Psychiatrists, Psychologists and other medical professionals for treatment purposes.
  - Educated patients and families about treatment procedures.
  - Maintained playroom clean and safe.
  - Reported the needs of new play equipment to Manager.
  - Ordered therapeutic supplies within the designated budget.
  - Supervised other Play Therapists when needed.
-

Play Therapist
AltaPointe Health Systems, Inc., Fort Yates, ND
May 2004 – July 2007

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Assisted in curriculum development activities.
  - Utilized sensory equipment and communication devices effectively.
  - Developed play activities to meet patient's needs.
  - Performed medical researches to identify new therapeutic techniques.
  - Encouraged patients to participate in educational activities.
  - Observed patient's daily responses to treatments.
  - Evaluated patients at various stages of therapy.
  - Modified treatment plan based on patient's progress.
-

Education:

---

Master's Degree in Play Therapy
Northwest Florida State College, Niceville, FL
Bachelor's Degree in Child Development
Benedictine University, Lisle, IL

---

Build your Resume Now