
Postpartum Nurse Resume

Job Objective

A successful Postpartum Nurse looking for a position with a health care organization that needs someone with the skills, background and know how to help attain their goals.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Vast experience in applying nursing skill in as a Postpartum facility
 - Profound knowledge of human development stages and cultural patterns
 - Thorough knowledge of managing things and persons around
 - Ability to take care of both L&D and Postpartum patients
 - Ability to perform all duties according to AWHONN standards
 - Excellent listening and communication skills
 - Strong background in science
-

Work Experience:

Postpartum Nurse, August 2005 – Present
Pitt County Memorial Hospital, Tukwila, WA

- Assessed, planned and evaluated appropriate patient care needs.
- Performed to carry out all physicians orders effectively.
- Administered prescribed medications, changed dressings; monitoring vital signs.
- Provided post-anesthesia recovery care for the patient in a timely fashion.
- Served as the primary coordinator of all disciplines for well coordinated patient care.
- Ensured to adhere to standards and provide direct nursing care in accordance with established policies, procedures and protocols of the healthcare organization.

Postpartum Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
American Mobile Healthcare, Tukwila, WA

- Attended to all the medical needs of the patients and maintained inventory of all medical supplies and equipment.
 - Provided professional nursing care and assistance to patients for varied illnesses.
 - Involved in direct and indirect patient care.
 - Managed to provide direction to licensed vocational nurses (LVNs).
 - Supervised the medical care of patients under the direction of the Medical Staff.
 - Ensured to follow the philosophy, policies and goals of the facility and department.
-

Education:

B.S in Health Services Management, Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, AZ

Build your Resume Now