Power Trader Resume

Job Objective

To help company meet its goals and be successful while holding the position of Power Trader.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Exceptional experience in power marketing and scheduling
- Huge knowledge of transmission system for organization
- Deep knowledge of CEE power and Reuters
- Immense ability to make decisions with available data
- Outstanding ability to multi task and prioritize activities
- Excellent communication skills in both forms
- Sound skills to perform basic math
- Familiarity of bulk power tariffs and interchange agreements
- Wide Knowledge of OASIS requirements, transmission systems and tagging requirements

Professional Experience:

Power Trader
PPL Corporation, Washington, DC
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Scheduled buying and selling of bulk power for all commodities.
- Monitored all negotiations for unstructured energy transactions.
- Maintained knowledge of all resource planning and regulations.
- Provided support to short term and long term power demands.
- Evaluated all trading activities undertaken by power traders.
- Monitored forward market pricing and forecasted any changes.
- Analyzed bulk power and market intelligence variables for power activities.
- Implemented businesses processes and provided support to it.

Power Trader
Koch Minerals, LLC, Washington, DC
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Generated profit and loss statements for electricity trading on monthly basis.
- Developed and implement all trading strategies for power marker.
- Maintained professional relationships with various market players.
- Provided support to EDFT trading desks and prepared strategies.
- Managed all trade for power in Eastern Europe market.
- Developed efficient relationships with all clients.
- Assisted to trade structured power derivatives to maximize profit.
- Implemented complex trading strategies to manage market volatility.

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Finance
Montclair State University, Upper Montclair, NJ

Build your Resume Now