
Prenatal Nurse Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a position as a Prenatal Nurse with the means to grow and where my nursing skills can be used to their fullest.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Exceptional knowledge of prenatal care
 - Thorough knowledge of pregnancy and childbirth
 - Ability to control the emotion of the patients
 - Ability to counter stressful situations
 - Strong physical endurance and excellent listening & Communication skills
 - Superior skills in handling health care responsibilities
-

Work Experience:

Prenatal Nurse, August 2005 – Present

Overlake Hospital Medical Center, Cambridge, MA

- Conducted childbirth classes, disseminating information.
- Provided parental care and assisted in delivery.
- Managed to follow up care of the mother and baby after birth.
- Administered correct diet, vitamin intake, and monitored glucose levels.
- Managed to detect any potential problems early, and acted to prevent them.
- Ensured to stay focused primarily on pregnancy and childbirth.

Prenatal Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005

Maine Medical Center, Cambridge, MA

- Provided physical and physiological care before, during, and after a pregnancy.
 - Educated the patients about the natural childbirth techniques.
 - Maintained all records of the regular check-ups over the course of pregnancy.
 - Provided emotional support during and after labor and delivery.
 - Monitored pregnancy and provided appropriate care.
 - Ensured to promote healthy mother-child bonding after birth.
-

Education:

Associate Degree in Nursing, Western Nevada Community College, Carson City, NV

Build your Resume Now