
Prison Nurse Resume

Job Objective

To further improve my skills as a Prison Nurse in a hospital that challenges and that sets high goals.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in human behavior and nursing practices
 - Thorough knowledge of the psychological behavior of patients undergoing sentences
 - Exceptional knowledge of safety principles and infection control
 - Ability to assess patients' needs
 - Ability to document patient assessments and nursing intervention
 - Strong verbal and written communication skills
 - Superior skills to handle physical, mental and emotional issues
-

Work Experience:

Prison Nurse, August 2005 – Present

Bureau of Prisons/Federal Prison System, Rupert, WV

- Provided direct patient care services in accordance with legal and ethical standards.
- Administered nursing care to inmates in the institution, hospital and clinic.
- Developed a nursing assessment for each patient.
- Assessed and identified high risk symptoms and behaviors in patients.
- Completed nutritional screening as part of the assessment.
- Monitored evaluated and revised the plan of care as needed.

Prison Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005

CA Prison Health Care, Rupert, WV

- Provided direct and indirect nursing care to inmates.
 - Collaborated with physicians and other health care providers.
 - Managed to take independent action ensuring professional and legal limits.
 - Supervised the conduct of inmates to protect and maintain safety.
 - Assisted the physicians with medical and minor surgical procedures.
 - Ensured administration of medication, therapeutic agents, treatments, disease prevention, and restorative measures as ordered by a physician.
-

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Becker College, Worcester, MA

Build your Resume Now