
Process Improvement Consultant Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Process Improvement Consultant position where I can apply my experience and efficiently contribute to the company's growth.

Areas of Excellence:

- Remarkable experience in process and productivity controlling
 - Huge knowledge of developing needs assessments
 - Deep knowledge of manufacturing industry
 - Proficient with Six-Sigma, CMM, CMMI or related process improvement methods
 - Familiarity with building strategic plans and process design programmes
 - Good understanding of risks, issues, mitigations, dependencies of process improvement
 - Excellent relationship building skills
-

Professional Experience:

Process Improvement Consultant
Waughn, Wheaton, IL
August 2005 – Present

- Managed and headed meetings across all levels of management.
- Assisted Infrastructure Program team members.
- Administered process mapping activities and documentation.
- Headed problem definition and process used across IT Infrastructure Program.
- Handled outlining problem and formulated analysis of defects.
- Outlined future state process analysis.

Process Improvement Consultant
Hussy, Inc., Wheaton, IL
May 2000 – July 2005

- Handled agreements with varied parties.
 - Imparted comprehensive process documentation.
 - Maintained measurement systems in place.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration
McNeese State University, Louisiana, LA

Build your Resume Now