
Production Welder Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Production Welder position with a well established company so that I can put to good use the many skills that I have acquired over a period of time.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in production welding activities
 - Good knowledge of MIG, TIG, stick and flex core welding procedures
 - Operational knowledge of welding equipment
 - Proficient with welding characteristics of ferrous and non-ferrous metals
 - Skilled in operation of stud welder
 - Amazing ability to interpret blueprints and engineering drawings
 - Outstanding ability to stand and sit for long periods
 - Immense ability to maintain working environment clean
-

Professional Experience:

Production Welder
Priority Personnel, Inc., Phoenix, AZ
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Performed production welding within acceptable tolerances and standards.
- Measured metal parts to ensure they meet dimensional requirements.
- Coordinated well with Engineers and Quality teams.
- Carried out duties as instructed by the Supervisor.
- Worked in compliance with safety policies and company regulations.
- Recorded daily work activities on computerized systems.
- Ensured to meet productivity and quality requirements.

Production Welder
Lockheed Martin Corporation, Phoenix, AZ
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Determined material needs based on welding work orders.
 - Loaded metal pieces into welding machines.
 - Assisted in setting-up equipment for production welding.
 - Inspected completed work for any defects.
 - Worked with other welders when needed.
 - Operated various types of welding equipment safely.
 - Utilized oxy-fuel cutting torch, grinder and beveller for cutting and preparing materials for welding processes.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Welding Technology
Governors State University, University Park, IL

Build your Resume Now