

---

PSYCHIATRIST ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RESUME

---

Summary:

---

A credible, effective and efficient Lecturer Psychiatric Assistant Professor with proven expertise in conveying knowledge to learning individuals; distinguished as a professional in delivering lectures, grading papers and exams; excellent ability to deliver quality instructions and lectures ensuring student satisfaction; uncommon and strong communication and interaction skills; a keen ability in conducting researches and studies; profound knowledge in all medical and nursing subject matters

---

Professional Experience:

---

Psychiatrist Assistant Professor January 2007 – present
Medical College of Albany, Albany, NY

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Facilitated graduate entry programs in the Department of Medicine by coordinating and teaching mental health.
- Conducted research on mental health and issues on the subject.
- Conducted and facilitated research and training programs in chronic diseases self management and mental health science.
- Provided support on research projects and training workshops for undergraduate and postgraduate students.
- Submitted reports of student's assessment of topics in mental health.
- Instructed and assessed undergraduate and postgraduate students of topics and courses in mental health.

Psychiatrist Associate Professor May 2004– January 2007
Medical College of Georgia, Atlanta, GA

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Instructed and assessed undergraduate and postgraduate students of topics and courses in mental health.
- Rendered leadership in innovative teaching and learning methodologies in mental health.
- Developed curriculum, teaching and learning materials for mental health topics in Mental Health Sciences.
- Contributed to the research and clinical supervision of graduate and research students.
- Coordinated with the organizational objective by contributing an efficient and effective functioning of the team or work unit.
- Provided assessment and treatment of inpatients and out patients in the Center for Mental Health and Related Disorders.

Psychiatric Technician February 1999 – May 2004
Albany Mental Health Center, Albany, NY

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Facilitated graduate entry programs in the Department of Medicine by coordinating and teaching mental health.
- Conducted research on mental health and issues on the subject.
- Conducted and facilitated research and training programs in chronic diseases self management and mental health science.
- Provided support on research projects and training workshops for undergraduate and postgraduate students.
- Submitted reports of student's assessment of topics in mental health.
- Instructed and assessed undergraduate and postgraduate students of topics and courses in mental health.

Psychiatrist Associate Professor May 2004– January 2007
Medical College of Georgia, Atlanta, GA

---

Education:

---

Ph. D. in Psychiatry, Stanford University, 1999
Bachelor of Science in Psychiatry, Stanford University, 1994

---

Skills:

---

- Proficiency in both oral and written communication skills
  - Proficiency in computer applications related to work
  - Knowledgeable in applicable laws, codes and regulations
  - Good time management and organizational skills
-

Awards and Honors:

---

Dean's Lister, Stanford University, 1994
Certificate: Licensure Certificate for Psychiatric Technician

Build your Resume Now