
PSYCHIATRIST RESUME

Summary:

A top-caliber professional with proven years of experience in mental health; an influential Psychiatrist with vast experience in mental health science; a successful individual that possesses substantial skills in treating mentally ill and disturbed patients; profound interpersonal skills to interact and communicate with various patients; approachable and a resourceful person; has the capabilities to direct a research team or even conduct own researches in facilitating and developing new technologies and methodologies for patient care

Professional Experience:

Psychiatrist January 2007 – present
Medical College of Georgia, Atlanta, GA

Responsibilities:

Treated mentally ill patients having mild and severe cases of mental disorders.
Coordinated with other health workers, psychologists, psychiatric nurses and psychiatric social workers to diagnose and treat patients with retardation and disturbed behavior.
Conferred with patients' family and relative to discuss about the mental health problems of the patient.
Facilitated therapy such as shock and psychotherapy and even prescribed medications in order to treat patients.
Facilitated discussions and conversations with patients to analyze with them the scope of their illness and to encourage them to have a treatment and to cope with their problems.
Conducted researches to further enhance skills and develop medicines and therapy for mental disorders.
Psychiatrist Associate Professor May 2004– January 2007
Medical College of Georgia, Atlanta, GA

Responsibilities:

- Treated mentally ill patients having mild and severe cases of mental disorders.
- Coordinated with other health workers, psychologists, psychiatric nurses and psychiatric social workers to diagnose and treat patients with retardation and disturbed behavior.
- Conferred with patients' family and relative to discuss about the mental health problems of the patient.
- Facilitated therapy such as shock and psychotherapy and even prescribed medications in order to treat patients.
- Facilitated discussions and conversations with patients to analyze with them the scope of their illness and to encourage them to have a treatment and to cope with their problems.
- Conducted researches to further enhance skills and develop medicines and therapy for mental disorders.

Psychiatrist Associate Professor May 2004– January 2007
Medical College of Georgia, Atlanta, GA

Responsibilities:

- Treated mentally ill patients having mild and severe cases of mental disorders.
- Coordinated with other health workers, psychologists, psychiatric nurses and psychiatric social workers to diagnose and treat patients with retardation and disturbed behavior.
- Conferred with patients' family and relative to discuss about the mental health problems of the patient.
- Facilitated therapy such as shock and psychotherapy and even prescribed medications in order to treat patients.
- Facilitated discussions and conversations with patients to analyze with them the scope of their illness and to encourage them to have a treatment and to cope with their problems.
- Conducted researches to further enhance skills and develop medicines and therapy for mental disorders.

Psychiatrist Associate Professor May 2004– January 2007
Medical College of Georgia, Atlanta, GA

Education:

Ph. D. in Psychiatry, Stanford University, 1999
Bachelor of Science in Psychiatry, Stanford University, 1994

Skills:

- Proficiency in both oral and written communication skills
- Proficiency in computer applications related to work
- Knowledgeable in applicable laws, codes and regulations
- Good time management and organizational skills

Awards and Honors:

Dean's Lister, Stanford University, 1994
Certificate: Licensure Certificate for Psychiatric Technician
Licensure: License Psychiatrist in State of Georgia

Build your Resume Now