
PSYCHOLOGY RESEARCH ASSISTANT RESUME

Objective:

To obtain a Psychology Research Assistant position which will challenge me and help the organization continue to be successful.

Summary of Skills:

- Intermediate experience in using statistical software.
 - Experience in the Microsoft Office suite of programs.
 - Profound ability to understand and summarize academic literature.
 - Proven ability for personal flexibility in the work environment.
 - Ability to conduct structured interviews with psychiatric patients.
-

Work Experience:

Psychology Research Assistant
Yale University, Beaverton, OR
August 2005 to till date

- Worked with project ARNP and RN to interpret patient interview results.
- Coordinated correspondence from staff to patients, and tracked correspondences.
- Performed Literature Reviews on selected topics related to the area of research.
- Analyzed and provided recommendations for project enhancement over time.
- Participated in preparing presentations and manuscripts for publication.

Psychology Research Assistant
Vanderbilt University, Beaverton, OR
May 2000 to July 2005

- Attended psychiatric staff meetings.
 - Managed the collection and entry of data for the related project.
 - Utilized web portal to enter data from multiple sites.
 - Performed data preparation, cleaning and statistical analysis through SPSS.
 - Managed to track and report results of project to Project Manager.
-

Education:

Bachelors in Psychology
University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT

Build your Resume Now