
Psychology Teacher Resume

Job Objective

Psychology Teacher seeking position with school that has the potential for career growth possibilities.

Professional Experience:

Psychology Teacher, August 2005 – Present
Evansville Vanderburgh School Corporation, Wharton, TX

- Prepared appropriate course materials, assignments and handouts.
- Managed to act as an adviser to student organizations.
- Developed grant proposals, presented to appropriate authority for research funding.
- Collaborated with other teachers to develop and address teaching issues.
- Served on academic and administrative committees dealing with departmental issues, institutional policies, and academic affairs.
- Evaluated and graded student works and exam papers.

Psychology Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Knowledge Learning Corporation, Wharton, TX

- Employed a variety of instructional techniques and instructional media.
 - Developed and informed students of reasonable rules.
 - Maintained appropriate classroom procedures and behavior.
 - Assisted the administration in implementing policies and rules governing student life.
 - Established clear objectives for all lessons, units, and projects.
 - Assessed the actions of students in a variety of ways on a regular basis and provided timely progress reports.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience in teaching Psychology
 - Sound knowledge of broad topics in the theory and practice of psychology
 - Exceptional knowledge of school and child psychology
 - Outstanding ability to write reports and general correspondence
 - Remarkable ability to present information effectively and respond appropriately
 - Excellent communication skills; oral and written
 - Strong behavioral, organizational and psycho-analytical skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, Northwestern College, Saint Paul, MN

Build your Resume Now