

---

Radiation Oncology Nurse Resume

---

Job Objective

Radiation Oncology Nurse seeking a position with doctor's office in which my expertise and educational background can help the office grow.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Sound knowledge of the method and procedure of radiation treatment
  - Working knowledge of the science of oncology
  - Ability to lift objects and people on a daily basis
  - Ability to put up a pleasant appearance
  - Excellent patience, interpersonal and communication skills
  - Strong compassion and responsive skills
-

Professional Experience:

---

Radiation Oncology Nurse, August 2005 – Present
Saint Anne's Hospital, Edgerton, MO

- Obtained and recorded vital signs of all patients as required.
- Educated the patient about the process and procedure of radiation treatment.
- Identified treatment related symptoms and provided suitable treatment care.
- Counseled the patients about the radiation related care and side effects.
- Performed follow up communications after completion of radiotherapy.
- Ensured to examine the radiation rooms for equipment in working condition and that the required supplies are in sufficient quality and quantity.

Radiation Oncology Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
MedStar Health, Edgerton, MO

- Developed and managed radiation clinical treatment plans, monitored outcomes, and initiated appropriate care.
  - Ensured to review patients charts and diagnostic reports to ensure that the required documentation are available for physicians review to administer radiotherapy.
  - Educated the radiation oncology patients with established clinical nursing standards.
  - Conducted comprehensive initial and ongoing physical examinations.
  - Identified normal and abnormal health characteristics after administering radiation.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Howard Payne University, Brownwood, TX

Build your Resume Now