
RAILROAD INSPECTOR RESUME

Objective:

Actively seeking the position of Railroad Inspector in which to employ my talents and special training to their fullest.

Qualifications:

- Vast experience in inspecting railroad tracks and related equipments
 - Sound knowledge of railroad safety codes and its principles
 - Profound knowledge of all rules and regulations related to public utilities
 - Outstanding knowledge of all the railway crossing policies and procedures
 - Ability to communicate for the railroad safety
 - Ability to resolve all problems by identifying them
 - Proficient with photography instruments
 - Excellent skills to prepare and present reports
 - Skilled at performing basic math in the inspection process
-

Professional Experience:

Railroad Inspector, October 2006 – Present
AdKore Staffing Group, Lewisburg, PA

- Conducted regular inspections of the electrical connections such as signals and track wirings.
- Replaced the defective parts such as switches, rails, ties, fishplates and brake rod pins.
- Conducted regular inspections on the system with the help of rail flaw detection machine and various hand tools.
- Prepared reports of all the work carried on the railcars and related equipments, tagged those railcars that needed immediate attention.
- Coordinated with the crew to tell them about the defective parts and recommended to repair, replace and re- blast the roadbed.
- Monitored the inspection process and sealed any part that is found leaking with the help of the caulking compound.

Railroad Inspector, August 2002 – September 2006
RJ Corman Railroad Company, Lewisburg, PA

- Maintained the data of the inspection process and checked for any violations, updated it regularly after every inspection.
 - Assisted the railroad companies by suggesting corrective actions in case of violations and followed it up with inspection to ensure that it has been catered.
 - Facilitated the court proceedings and hearings when necessary by collecting data to find about the accident and other safety violations.
 - Coordinated with the railroad inspectors in investigating accidents such as derailments and the spill of hazardous materials.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering, Lexington College, Chicago, IL

Build your Resume Now