
Recreation Therapist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking employment as Recreation Therapist in a well established organization where I can put my specialized skills to the best use.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience with recreation therapy activities and programs
 - Thorough knowledge of therapy activities
 - Deep knowledge of inpatient psychiatric treatment facility
 - Familiarity with case management activities
 - Skilled in developing therapeutic program
 - Amazing ability to maintain patient information confidential
 - Remarkable ability to make complex clinical decisions
 - Outstanding ability to handle multiple priorities
-

Professional Experience:

Recreation Therapist
The HSC Health Care System, White Plains, NY
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Performed patient assessment to determine their problems.
- Implemented recreational activities to meet patient's needs.
- Assisted in development of treatment objectives.
- Conducted individual or group therapy sessions.
- Planned field trips for patients.
- Maintain weekly calendar of events.
- Documented patient's daily progress.
- Maintained good working relationships with patients and families.

Recreation Therapist
Parkridge Valley Hospital, White Plains, NY
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Planned appropriate recreational programs based on capacity and limitations of patients.
 - Encouraged patients to participate in aerobics, creative expressions, and outdoor education.
 - Observed patient's responses at various stages of treatments.
 - Modified therapy programs based on patient's progress.
 - Maintained the working environment clean and safe.
 - Followed performance and professional standards at all times.
 - Reported therapy equipment repair and maintenance problems to Manager.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Recreational Therapy
Belhaven College, Jackson, MS

Build your Resume Now