

---

Research Assistant Professor Resume

---

Job Objective

A passionate researcher and academician seeking to occupy the position of Research Assistant Professor.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Wide experience in assisting Head Professor in research activities
  - Sound knowledge of research modeling programs
  - Profound knowledge of teaching methodologies
  - Skilled in teaching and motivating research students
  - Familiarity with research techniques
  - Ability to secure external funds for researches
  - Ability to resolve academic and research issues
  - Ability to teach students with diverse backgrounds and needs
-

Professional Experience:

---

Research Assistant Professor

George Mason University, Weekiwachee Spgs., FL

August 2007 – Present

- Reviewed and revised course materials.
- Supported research programs and maintained research agenda.
- Developed teaching strategies to ensure quality learning experiences for students.
- Participated in campus wide meetings and educational committee.
- Prepared grant proposals to obtain research funds.
- Addressed educational needs of students with disabilities.
- Involved students in class discussions, seminars and webinars.
- Assisted in development of distance based educational programs.

Research Assistant Professor

Tennessee State University, Weekiwachee Spgs., FL

May 2004 – July 2007

- Assisted in development of course curriculum.
  - Developed research initiatives and supervised research teams.
  - Motivated students to achieve academic goals.
  - Monitored Student's progress and provided feedbacks for improvements.
  - Maintained student's grade and attendance records.
  - Contributed to educational academic publications and journals.
-

Education:

---

PhD in Economics

Grand View University, Des Moines, IA Master's Degree in Economics

Saint John's Seminary College, Camarillo, CA

Build your Resume Now