
Residential Child Care Worker Resume

Job Objective

To use my extensive training and special skills to acquire a Residential Child Care Worker position with reputable company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Huge experience of working with young people
 - Profound knowledge of Children Act 1989, child protection issues and procedures
 - Ability to develop productive working relationships between workers, the local community and other agencies
 - Ability to provide for the day to day care needs of children
 - Ability to relate well to children and young people
 - Ability to provide a positive role model for young people
-

Professional Experience:

Residential Child Care Worker
Dorsetforyou, Jackson, MS
February 2005 – Present

- Cleaned work area, cooked food and performed other domestic tasks with children.
- Supervised children and organized recreational activities.
- Developed, implemented and administered plans to provide requirements of youth.
- Maintained records as per established policies and procedures.

Residential Child Care Worker
Children's Workforce Development Council, Jackson, MS
August 2000 – January 2005

- Served as positive role model and evaluated requirements of residential child.
 - Supported children's social network with local community.
 - Developed guidelines for behavior and provided spiritual and emotional support.
 - Created safe and happy living environment.
 - Helped children to access and utilize educational, fitness and leisure services.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Social Work
San Jose City College, San Jose, CA

Build your Resume Now