

---

Restorative Nurse Resume

---

Job Objective

---

To secure a Restorative Nurse position with your practice to enhance both my own experiences as well as the reputation of the physician.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Successful prior occupational experience in a nursing home facility
  - Thorough knowledge of MDS process
  - Exceptional knowledge of training the patients for rehabilitation
  - Ability to build confidence among patients and families
  - Ability to direct the rehabilitation program
  - Excellent rehabilitation planning skills
  - Superior skills in handling health care responsibilities
-

Work Experience:

---

Restorative Nurse, August 2005 – Present
Resurrection Health Care, Green Bay, WI

- Provided Restorative Nursing assessments and plans for the inmates of the unit.
- Developed care practices through the nursing process of assessment and planning.
- Evaluated care facilities provided to assigned patients and recommended changes.
- Managed to maintain standards of professional nursing.
- Adhered to the established policies and worked towards the specified objectives.

Restorative Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
Villa Health Care East, Green Bay, WI

- Managed to prepare and present regular reports on the Resident Safety Program.
  - Evaluated, planned, organized and directed restorative therapy services.
  - Educated facility staff in restorative therapy and its execution on daily basis.
  - Maintained complete and accurate records of the therapy service rendered.
  - Participated in the RAI (Resident Assessment Instrument) process.
-

Education:

---

B.S in Nursing and Care, Salus University, Elkins Park, PA

Build your Resume Now