
Safety Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Looking for work within your company as a Safety Engineer.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience in executing root cause analysis and sound practicality in construction safety
 - Steep knowledge of basic industrial hygiene principles
 - Familiarity with OSHA safety regulations, ANSI standards, and other personnel safety practices
 - Deep knowledge of personal computer applications
 - Skilled in conducting safety training and presentations
 - Ability to communicate with audiences and express ideas concisely
 - Ability to keep up good working relationships and work in cross-functional team environment
 - Superior analytical and computer skills
 - Excellent communication skills
-

Work Experience:

Safety Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Merck, Lincoln, NE

- Imparted technical support.
- Monitored operations, facilities equipment and procedures.
- Identified hazards materials.
- Provided guidance to site customers.
- Managed project safety checklist and pre-startup safety reviews.

Safety Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Harris Corporation, Lincoln, NE

- Provided bases decisions on facts and unsolicited solutions.
 - Carried out training sessions and maintained training tracker.
 - Issued confined space monitoring equipment.
 - Aided PPE distribution and provided guidance.
 - Assisted with root cause analysis of any accident.
 - Performed industrial sanitation and conducted safety surveys.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Safety Engineering, Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, CA

Build your Resume Now