

---

SAS CONSULTANT RESUME

---

Objective:

To take a challenging role as SAS Consultant in a highly technical company and utilize my skills in SAS Tools, Statistical Tools, Web Languages, and OS in providing efficient and effective service to the company in attaining its goals.

Education:

Master in Computer Applications, 2002
Yale University

BS MIS, 1999
Yale University

Skills:

- Demonstrated skills in planning, design and analysis match/cleanse processes of DWH
- Strong knowledge in of SAS programming including macros
- XML, Dream weaver,
- Oracle 8i/9i, DB2, SQL Server, MS Access
- DB2, SQL, JCL, TSO
- Experienced with Screen Control Language
- Strong Analytical skills

Professional Experience:

- SAS Consultant III, 2008-present
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Responsibilities:

- Maintained SAS application environments and supported the users.
- Oversaw the daily operation of SAS Enterprise Business Intelligence.
- Participated in production software deployments, upgrades, capacity planning and backup strategies.
- Created HTML, RTF and PDF output files using SAS ODS.
- SAS Consultant II, 2005-2008
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Responsibilities:

- Coordinated with SAS engineers in the troubleshooting and configuration of the environment and operational use.
- Consulted with SAS Team regarding upgrade of the SAS EBI environment.
- Provided instructions for optimal efficiency of SAS applications though monitoring of usage, code review, and best practice solutions.
- SAS Consultant I, 2002-2005
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Responsibilities:

- Maintained SAS application environments and supported the users.
- Oversaw the daily operation of SAS Enterprise Business Intelligence.
- Participated in production software deployments, upgrades, capacity planning and backup strategies.
- Created HTML, RTF and PDF output files using SAS ODS.
- SAS Consultant II, 2005-2008
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Certifications and Affiliations:

Certificate in Linear Regression, Logistic Regression,
Association SAS Consultants in Georgetown

