
SENIOR PRINCIPAL ENGINEER RESUME

Career Objective:

Seeking employment as a Senior Principal Engineer in a qualified company in order to bring my years of expertise in the industry to the table.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience with S/C power system verification and microwave component measurement
 - In-depth knowledge of radar signal processing
 - Steep knowledge of communications and microwave theory
 - Familiar with DSP concepts – ECCM, FFT and DRFM
 - Good understanding of RF transmitter technologies
 - Profound knowledge of formulating technical documents
 - Amazing ability to communicate with varied engineers
 - Immense ability to coordinate with people from engineering and non-engineering disciplines
 - Superior interpersonal skills and Strong oral presentation skills
-

Work Experience:

Principal Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Orbital Sciences, Middlebourne, WV

- Handled cost account management for multi-year program.
- Formulated design reviews for customers.
- Imparted test support for the communications systems.
- Provided technical guidance and direction to engineering team and innovated materials for project related briefings.
- Outlined proposal material and tracked progress of tasks in the project.

Principal Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Infinera, Middlebourne, WV

- Carried out complex analysis, test, design and development.
 - Created strategies for analysis, test and design.
 - Evaluated project requirements and developed detailed objectives and test programs.
 - Managed development of reports and designed notes.
 - Aided the customer in defining system requirements.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering, Centenary College, Hackettstown, NJ

Build your Resume Now