
Server Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Seeking Server Engineer position in which my training and qualifications can help company boost productivity.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience with server management and Server database administration
 - Steep knowledge of practices of computer networks in client-server and Microsoft Operating System environments
 - Huge knowledge of operating platforms, systems design, set-up and troubleshooting procedures
 - Familiarity with Windows clusters, Veritas, PolyServe & firewalls
 - Good understanding of all phases of data architecture in server systems
 - Solid understanding of relational database theory and documentation procedures
 - Ability to outline testing routines and manage system security program
 - Ability to set up hardware, software and peripherals as well as back up databases
 - Superior communication skills
-

Work Experience:

Server Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Total eBiz Solutions, New York, NY

- Conducted regular checks on the status of servers and maintained data backup of servers.
- Managed escalation aid from Desktop Services and branch IT teams for resolving desktop and server issues.
- Handled team hotline and responded to emails and managed service requests from customers.
- Maintained site servers and supervised for installation of servers.

Server Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
AC Transit, New York, NY

- Managed networks, servers and databases as well as maintained computer networks.
 - Resolved performance queries and enforced testing routines to resolve conflicts.
 - Troubleshoot malfunctions with networked systems.
 - Outlined Local Area Networks and Wide Area Networks.
 - Maintained procedures and extended user information and training materials as well as reviewed systems maintenance.
 - Corresponded with end-users to identify user needs.
 - Reviewed time and resources needed for projects and supervised systems security.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Sciences, San Joaquin Valley College, Visalia, CA

Build your Resume Now