
SEWING MACHINE OPERATOR RESUME

Summary:

An individual with more than five years of experience in the garment industry; very creative and inventive in operating sewing machines such as joining, reinforcing, and decorating garments and garment parts; various background includes limited supervision, training, problem solving, sewing and alteration; excellent communication skills written and verbal; has capability to make immediate decision and sustain customer service excellence

Professional Experience:

Sewing Machine Operator January 2007 – Present
Aeropostale, Inc, San Diego, CA

Responsibilities:

Placed materials or articles in clamps, template, or hoop frame prior to automatic operation of machine
Turned knobs and screws to adjust settings of machines according to garment style
Drew yarn patterns through guides, needles and tensions and fine-tuned machine functions according to fabric type
Sewn missing stitches and repaired according to quality assurance
Monitored sewing machine operations and observed defects in stitching or machine malfunctions
Informed supervisors of machine malfunctions
Pinned applique's and drew markings on fabric to achieve variation in design
Sewing Machine Operator May 2004 – December 2006
Mantanco Garments Inc, Los Angeles, CA

Responsibilities:

- Placed materials or articles in clamps, template, or hoop frame prior to automatic operation of machine
- Turned knobs and screws to adjust settings of machines according to garment style
- Drew yarn patterns through guides, needles and tensions and fine-tuned machine functions according to fabric type
- Sewn missing stitches and repaired according to quality assurance
- Monitored sewing machine operations and observed defects in stitching or machine malfunctions
- Informed supervisors of machine malfunctions
- Pinned applique's and drew markings on fabric to achieve variation in design

Sewing Machine Operator May 2004 – December 2006
Mantanco Garments Inc, Los Angeles, CA

Responsibilities:

- Placed materials or articles in clamps, template, or hoop frame prior to automatic operation of machine
- Turned knobs and screws to adjust settings of machines according to garment style
- Drew yarn patterns through guides, needles and tensions and fine-tuned machine functions according to fabric type
- Sewn missing stitches and repaired according to quality assurance
- Monitored sewing machine operations and observed defects in stitching or machine malfunctions
- Informed supervisors of machine malfunctions
- Pinned applique's and drew markings on fabric to achieve variation in design

Sewing Machine Operator May 2004 – December 2006
Mantanco Garments Inc, Los Angeles, CA

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineer, University of California-Irvine, CA, 1999

Skills/Certifications:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
 - Excellent quantitative and analytical skills
 - Proficiency in Microsoft Excel, Word, Outlook and PowerPoint
 - Business and operations management
-

Associations/Organizations:

- Employee Service Award, Mantanco Garments Inc, 2004

Build your Resume Now