SMALLTALK DEVELOPER RESUME

Donna Austin
1103 Waterview Lane
Las Cruces, NM 88001
(333) 603-8072
Email: [email]

Career Goal:

Seeking Smalltalk Developer position in a growing company where I can share my skills in SQL database and MQ Series.

Technical Skills:

Strong in Smalltalk developing settings:

- Object Studio Version 8.2

Proficiency in programming languages:

- .NET
- JAVA
- C++, C#

Expertise in software apps development service:

- VisualWorks

Technical skills on application LifeCycle:

- Designs
- Deployment
- Development
- Client server application

Excellent in Path languages:

- XSLT
- XPath
- XML

Skilled in maintaining databases:

- Microsoft SQL data bases
- Relational databases

Profound abilities to:

- Use Smalltalk
- Manage source codes
- Test and tune robust
- Support Smalltalk apps and ClearQuest

Extensive understanding of:

- IBM MQ Series
- Client Server

Relevant Experience:

Smalltalk Developer
Precision System Design, Inc.
November 2012 – Present
Las Cruces, NM

- Supported and maintained apps and programs scripted in Smalltalk.
- Provided assistance to technical team with usage of new units in Legacy Smalltalk systems.
- Tested and fixed bugs in apps and formulated programming specifications.
- Designed codes as per high standards to enhance system performance and to reduce execution risk.
- Collected requirement data and formulated solutions for projects and modification requests.
- Documented development assignments and activities.
- Identified interface solutions and ensured utilization of codes as per enterprise structural design.
- Wrote system and program codes in accordance with technical necessities.

Educational Background:

Bachelor's Degree in Information Technology
Middle Tennessee State University
August 2008 – May 2012
Murfreesboro, TN

Professional Certification:

Certified VisualAge for Smalltalk Associate DeveloperJuly 2012

Build your Resume Now