

---

Social Science Researcher Resume

---

Job Objective

Seeking employment as a Social Science Researcher with established firm where my past experience can be an asset.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Hands on experience in planning and managing various researches and evaluating it
  - Deep knowledge of the theory and principles of behavioral science
  - Profound knowledge of public health
  - Wide knowledge of social science research and evaluation methods
  - Ability to work on various research databases
  - Ability to evaluate various research work
  - Ability to communicate research and analysis
  - Ability to work with various research databases
  - Strong communication skills in both oral and written forms
-

Professional Experience:

---

Social Science Researcher
BAE Systems, San Luis Obispo, CA
November 2007 – Present

- Managed all statistical and theoretical data performed valid procedures in all country assessments.
- Coordinated with contractors and military personnel and performed analysis on written materials.
- Assisted various organizations and agencies in all research work.
- Analyzed all data and resolved any issues on same.
- Performed tests on various data and validated all conclusions and findings.
- Developed various mathematical models and computer program and performed evaluation of all studies.

Social Science Researcher
L-3 Communications, San Luis Obispo, CA
December 2003 – October 2007

- Monitored work of assessment team and scheduled all objectives for same.
  - Monitored work of all research participations and performed necessary follow ups when required.
  - Evaluated all data prior to entering it on databases and corrected all errors.
  - Prepared research findings and presented it people.
  - Administered all specimens required for research projects.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Social Sciences
Muskingum College, New Concord, OH

Build your Resume Now