
Social Studies Teacher Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a position as a Social Studies Teacher in order to use my experience to the benefit of the administrators.

Professional Experience:

Social Studies Teacher, August 2005 – Present
K12 School, Omaha, NE

- Instructed social studies curriculum containing U.S. History and World History.
- Fulfilled responsibilities as defined and directed by the management.
- Established healthy relationships with management, teachers, staff, parents/guardians and the community members.
- Utilized appropriate technology to communicate the progress of students.
- Assisted the administration in implementing school goals and policies.
- Ensured to maintain excellent communication with staff and parents.

Social Studies Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Aspire Public School, Omaha, NE

- Planned a program of study meeting the individual interests and abilities.
 - Created a positive and a supportive learning environment in the classroom.
 - Guided the learning process to achieve curriculum goals.
 - Ensured to maintain harmony with the goals and a clearer objective.
 - Determined interventions by monitoring continuous student progress.
 - Served as a role model to students and other teachers.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Successful teaching experience in social studies in a diversified facility
 - Operational knowledge and interest in common assessments and teaching methods
 - Thorough knowledge of basic computer applications; MS Office
 - Remarkable ability to demonstrate decision-making and problem solving techniques
 - Amazing ability to relate well with within and related circle of duties
 - Excellent oral, written, and interpersonal communication skills
 - Strong instructional skills
-

Education:

Associate Degree in Commerce, Monroe Community College, Rochester, NY

Build your Resume Now