
Special Police Officer Resume

Job Objective

To maximize my skills and training as a Special Police Officer in well organized organization to help the organization reach its objectives.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Excellent communication & interpersonal skills
 - Amazing ability to operate impact weapons, department phone and two-way mobile radio systems, computers, other associated equipment
 - Outstanding ability to organize, prioritize, analyze, forecast, assess, evaluate, and train
 - Uncommon ability to understand and carry out instructions furnished in written, oral or diagram form
-

Professional Experience:

Special Police Officer
Georgetown University, Columbus, OH
August 2005 – Present

- Adhered to Company Police Laws and Regulations; state county, and city ordinances.
- Initiated appropriate actions pertaining to violations occurring in and on NHRMC's property.
- Identified and resolved potential violent situations.
- Participated in the development of projects and study of specific issues requiring a proposal and concept.

Special Police Officer
Prince William County Government, Columbus, OH
May 2000 – July 2005

- Developed and maintained safe and secure learning and working environment for students and district personnel.
 - Assisted in conducting preliminary and follow-up investigations.
 - Assisted in developing and implementing school safety programs.
 - Promoted crime prevention and traffic safety.
 - Maintained contact and liaised to local law enforcement agencies and courts in the area of student truancy.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Criminology
Mount Aloysius College, Cresson, PA

Build your Resume Now