

---

Stationary Engineer Resume

---

Job Objective

Searching for an opportunity to use my years of experience and training as a Stationary Engineer to help growing company meet their goals.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Remarkable experience in utilizing industrial power plant equipment
  - Deep understanding of boilers and other equipments
  - Deep knowledge of electronic control equipment
  - Ability to evaluate situations and maintain varied equipments
  - Ability to resolve issues and work independently and in a team
  - Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
  - Superior mechanical and analytical skills
-

Work Experience:

---

Stationary Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Merck, Silverton, CO

- Managed apt oil, glycol and cooling water parameters.
- Reviewed capacity and adequacy of utility services.
- Carried out daily tours of utility equipment and routine tests.
- Assisted supervisory, engineering and customer personnel.
- Managed chemical treatment and utility equipment.
- Maintained proper housekeeping conditions and handled WPMS alarms.
- Aided General Workers and Maintenance personnel and coached technicians, supervisors and planners.

Stationary Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
PDJBConsulting, Silverton, CO

- Managed equipment and evaluated electrical system.
  - Maintained equipment and monitored temperature, pressure, water levels and fuel consumption.
  - Tested equipment.
  - Handled burners and valves on equipment.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering, Saint Francis University, Loretto, PA

Build your Resume Now