
Structural Geologist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking work as a Structural Geologist.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience in exploration, evaluation and restoration of geological structures and reserves
 - Immense knowledge of folded belt regions, salt provinces and geologic basins
 - Extensive knowledge of using Petrel, Geoframe and MS Office Suite
 - Familiarity with seismic processing techniques, interpretation systems and structural restoration apps
 - Ability to interpret and utilize 2D and 3D seismic information
 - Ability to create appropriate and accurate structural models and work reports
-

Professional Experience:

Structural Geologist
Hilcorp Energy Company, City Of Commerce, CA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Directed and assisted in geological research and development projects.
- Conducted geological sampling, and performed evaluation of seismic structures.
- Interpreted and integrated 2D/3D seismic data and image log information.
- Created structural maps and models based on geological, structural and geophysical data.
- Wrote, validated, and submitted accurate and timely research results and reports.
- Interacted and liaised with geophysicists, engineers, technical specialists, government agencies and academic partners.

Structural Geologist
EOG Resources, Inc, City Of Commerce, CA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Executed and managed all assigned geological and geophysical studies and evaluations.
 - Interpreted and integrated all geological, seismic, and well data, in an efficient manner.
 - Prepared basin models based on interpreted and integrated information.
 - Analyzed and interpreted fault frameworks and counseled relevant teams on structural risks.
 - Planned and conducted training sessions for staff members on structural geology matters.
 - Established and retained strong relationships with all customers and contractors.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Structural Geology
Savannah State University, Savannah, GA

Build your Resume Now