
Supplier Quality Engineer Resume

Job Objective

To form a lasting relationship with a well established company by using my education and past experiences as a Supplier Quality Engineer.

Work Experience:

Supplier Quality Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Newell Rubbermaid, Southfield, MI

- Established quality policies and executed supplier capability assessments.
- Headed the New Product Development team.
- Managed supplier deviation change requests and evaluated supplier control plans.
- Coordinated supplier quality ranking program and assigned suppliers.
- Handled supplier continuous improvement programs.

Supplier Quality Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Oceaneering, Southfield, MI

- Coordinated with customers and validated supplier production processes.
 - Managed suppliers and scrutinized supplier QPs and ITPs.
 - Handled continuous process improvement teams and coached cross-functional teams.
 - Maintained Supplier metrics and headed supplier quality performance improvement efforts.
 - Carried out supplier quality audits.
 - Aided quality department with internal audits.
 - Formulated manufacturing and test documentation.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience of electroplating & painting as well as remarkable practicality in Lean and Six Sigma
 - Huge knowledge of metal processes, wood forming and laminations as well as quality methods
 - Outstanding ability to define problems and collect data
 - Ability to apply improvement principles and techniques as well as communicate with team members
 - Wide knowledge of metal processes and wood forming
 - Superior leadership and communication skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Supply Chain, Mercyhurst College, Erie, PA

Build your Resume Now