
SURGICAL FIRST ASSISTANT RESUME

Objective:

To obtain the Surgical First Assistant position and utilize my experience and skills for the successful completion of each job task.

Summary of Skills:

- Proven ability to understand and implement infection control
- Remarkable knowledge of hospital safety practices
- Profound Ability to work routinely with and without direct supervision
- Ability to demonstrate good judgment in daily activities
- Exceptional customer service and customer focus skills

Work Experience:

Surgical First Assistant, August 2005 to till date
Florida Hospital Memorial Healthcare System, New York, NY

- Attended to position the patient in accordance with the surgeon's instruction.
- Utilized standard and specialized equipment to aid in patient positioning.
- Provided the surgeon's with appropriate visualization of the operative site using retractors, sponges, digital manipulation, and other techniques adhering to standards.
- Selected and applied appropriate wound dressings.
- Assisted with patient transport to and from OR.

Surgical First Assistant, May 2000 to July 2005
Anthem Education Group, New York, NY

- Ensured to build rapport and cooperative relationship with members and patients.
- Ensured to consider how actions and plans will affect members and responded quickly to meet member and patient needs to resolve problems.
- Provided aid in exposure, homeostasis and other technical functions under the direct and immediate supervision of a surgeon.
- Ensured to assist the surgeon in carrying out a safe operation with optimal results.
- Developed and sustained productive member and patient relationships.
- Provided assistance to members and patients according to their existing condition and requirement.

Education:

Associate Degree in Surgical Technology, Mt. Hood Community College, Gresham, OR

Build your Resume Now