

---

SURVEYING ENGINEER RESUME

---

Objective:

To obtain a position as a Surveying Engineer with reputed organization that offers the chance to gain more experience in this field.

Qualifications:

- Extensive experience in the design of commercial, industrial and residential buildings, retaining walls
- Outstanding knowledge of construction practices, materials and equipment
- Deep knowledge of estimating and quantity surveying principles
- Solid understanding of construction methodology
- Ability to read and understand construction documents

Professional Experience:

- Surveying Engineer, 2007 – Present
- M&G Engineering, Beverly Hills, CA
- Designed and prepared construction plans for various types of bridges in accordance with NH DOT standards.
- Provided technical support in the review of design packages and drawings.
- Coordinated with teammates on company estimating methods and procedures and prepared directions.
- Supervised and performed engineering and surveying activities to accurately monitor record and report actual production and performance data.
- Assisted in surveying work by operating surveying instruments, staking out locations, plotting alignment and grades.

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering, 2007, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PAs

Build your Resume Now