
System Programmer Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a challenging position as System Programmer in a organization that will effectively utilize my experience and offer opportunity for career growth.

Work Experience:

System Programmer, August 2005 – Present
Kforce, Inc, Culver, KS

- Formulated a new program for monitoring the complete security control.
- Reviewed, tested and evaluated new versions of operating systems and related software.
- Converted software specification requirements into appropriate programming languages.
- Planned, provided and installed equipment interfaces and peripheral devices.
- Analyzed and determined software specifications for completeness and compatibility with operating system capabilities.
- Reviewed and documented software failures and took corrective action as directed.

System Programmer, May 2000 – July 2005
Vam Systems, Culver, KS

- Prepared specifications for improvement in the operation of computer and telecommunications system.
 - Determines program design and wrote system programs in computer languages and machine code.
 - Modified, amended and updated software programs and database structures.
 - Prepared documentation on the use of system software by other information technology personnel.
 - Contributed updating new software in computer and developing local area network environment.
 - Evaluated and implemented ways to incorporate existing and new technologies.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Extensive knowledge of working with a current version of SAP ERP System as System Programmer
 - Operational knowledge of C,C++,DCOM and .Net frame work
 - In-depth knowledge on Dbase, SQL, SQL database design
 - Deep knowledge of the theory, principles and practices of systems and applications programming
 - Huge knowledge of the functions and capabilities of computer operating systems and software programming applications
 - Proficient with computer security procedures
 - Excellent programming skills
 - Exceptional ability to take ownership of continuation and development activity
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Statistics, Plymouth State University, New Hampshire, NH

Build your Resume Now