Systems Development Manager Resume

Job Objective

Respected Systems Development Manager seeks position where my skills would be used for the betterment of the company and its employees.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Profound experience with software development life cycle and designing system requirement
- Excellent debugging and testing skills
- Expertise in developing full life cycle of systems
- Huge knowledge of system designs and mapping
- Outstanding knowledge of software development
- Remarkable ability to develop systems in C++ on Unix platforms
- Immense ability to perform troubleshoot on systems and resolved problems
- Familiarity with Middleware and SOA base implementations
- Proficient with Siebel, SAP, Peoplesoft, Oracle, JEE(J2EE) and.NET
- Exceptional skills to work on application programs
- Ability to resolve and escalate issues in a timely fashion
- Ability to translate user problems into technical solutions
- Proficient in storage systems and databases

Professional Experience:

Systems Development Manager
Deloitte, San Antonio, TX
October 2008 – Present

- Managed all complex problems and resolved them by maximizing utilization of resources and provided customer satisfaction.
- Developed customized applications as per customer requirements, prepared necessary codes and tests for applications.
- Coordinated with clients and vendors and managed all work according to requirements and on schedule.
- Monitored all work carried on system such as designing, developing prototypes and appropriate tests on systems.
- Planned price strategies related to systems and prepared proposal documents for development process.
- Trained staff and assisted them in resolving all system related queries.
- Assisted and provided technical support to delivery team.

Systems Development Specialist
Curtiss, San Antonio, TX
August 2003 – September 2008

- Developed and documented all test plans and related data and necessary upgrades required to system.
- Analyzed system designs and recommended changes to it such as software upgrades required and implemented appropriate tests.
- Identified any issues in systems and analyzed it and recommend changes and modifications required to system.
- Documented all functional specifications of systems to be presented to management.
- Organized records of user acceptance tests carried on systems and their various systems results.
- Ensured systems development, tests and specifications according to customer requirement.
- Coordinated with customers and vendors and resolved all issues occurring in system tests.
- Established customer requirements and provided feedback on various tests conducted and analyzed their results.

Systems Development Engineer
Comsys, San Antonio, TX
May 1998 – July 2003

- Coordinated with customers and developed operating systems and communication softwares.
- Identified all issues in software, performed tests on software applications and resolved present issues.
- Documented test and test code.
- Developed security systems and provided access to selected users only.
- Assisted technical writer and prepared all necessary technical documented to be used by user.
- Trained end users in working and test procedures for systems.
- Evaluated current systems and made necessary modifications,

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Engineering
Black Hawk College, Moline, IL

Build your Resume Now