

---

Technical Marketing Engineer Resume

---

Job Objective

To secure a Technical Marketing Engineer job where my abilities and experiences will help me advance in the field.

---

Work Experience:

Technical Marketing Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Cisco Systems, Warwick, SD

- Monitored Test Team and coordinated in beachhead engagements.
- Assisted reference customers as well as CPOCs and customer trials and handled field queries.
- Formulated additional documentation and aided field and system team.
- Collected competitive information and collaborated with technology and GTM partners.
- Aided customer demonstrations and supported roadmaps.
- Managed documentation reviews.

Technical Marketing Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
NetApp, Warwick, SD

- Formulated solutions for Engineering Application customer.
  - Assisted partner in joint solution.
  - Acted as domain expert for engineering applications.
  - Analyzed performance of varied deployment architectures.
  - Outlined technical reports and training content for pre and post sales engineers.
  - Provided technical presentations to customers.
  - Reviewed new NetApp technologies.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in Service Provider market and with development of scripts for application administration
  - Profound knowledge of databases and engineering applications
  - Deep knowledge of IP communications protocols, GSM, CDMA and 3GPP architectures as well as file systems
  - Solid understanding of operating systems and IP networking as well as good grasp of storage architecture and topology
  - Ability to coordinate in virtual team efforts and work closely with customers
  - Excellent technical and project management skills
  - Superior communication skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Engineering & Marketing, Wenatchee Valley College, Wenatchee, WA

---

Build your Resume Now