
Telecom Installer Resume

Job Objective

Dedicated and hard-working Telecom Installer seeking the opportunity to utilize my skills to help company grow and prosper.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in installing and maintain all Telecom equipments
 - Expertise in installing optical DWDM, OTDR and OSA
 - Sound knowledge of the T-1, DS-3 and various fiber testing procedures
 - Operational knowledge of the telecom technologies and practices
 - Ability to work for long hours and on weekends and extended time as well
 - Ability to work without supervision and resolve any issues
 - Proficient in using the various telecommunication tools and ticketing tools
-

Professional Experience:

Telecom Installer, April 2008 – Till Date

Verizon Communications, East Wenatchee, WA

- Installed terminal boxes and associated auxiliary equipments using various equipments to access the areas.
- Inspected all the lines of the cable to ensure that there are no malfunctions in the installation of the product.
- Ensured that there is signal strength for equipment by checking the utility poles with the help of various measuring instrument.
- Maintained a variety of vehicles to assist the installation process such as cable plows and digger derricks.
- Assisted in erecting the poles with the help of the power tools and dogged holes for the poles to be erected with the help of shovels.
- Provided assistance to the customers by explaining them the installation process and collected the installation fees.

Telecom Installer, January 2004 – March 2008

COMSYS, East Wenatchee, WA

- Installed and maintained the infrastructure for the telecommunication services such as telephone, data and the cable television networks.
 - Prepared the quotation by estimating the price of equipments and labor.
 - Prepared documents on all the installation and repair work carried for the infrastructure with the help of CAD generated drawings.
 - Developed the system in accordance to the client requirement and suggested the best possible telecommunication network to suit his need.
-

Education:

High School Diploma, Monroe High School, Albany, GA

Build your Resume Now