

---

TELEVISION PRODUCER RESUME

---

Objective:

Looking for work as a Television Producer that will enable me to make positive contributions to company by utilizing my prior training in this field.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in television production and editing
- Expertise in video production and direction
- Outstanding knowledge of video editing such as Final Cut Pro and Avid
- Familiarity with cameras, lighting, and audio equipment's used in television production
- Wide knowledge of current events, politics, pop culture, and history
- Deep knowledge of the live and multi level camera techniques
- Ability to recognize stories with high potential for provocative, passionate, compelling television
- Ability to work within the public access and public broadcasting

Professional Experience:

Television Producer, April 2008 – Till Date
Media Match, Salt Lake City, UT

- Maintained the overall program by selecting the content, adding the desired creative and coordinated with other departments to produce the show.
- Organized the final product to be of optimal quality and performed the final editing with the help of editors and directors.
- Administered the work of the programming every week with the help of segment hosts and producers.
- Planned the shooting schedules and supervised the production staff to ensure the smooth functioning of the on air program.
- Integrated the multi camera recordings and edited segments in the studio to make a good show.

Television Producer, January 2004 – March 2008
Starz Entertainment LLC, Salt Lake City, UT

- Administered the entire broadcast of the show such as writing the script.
- Selected music to be played and supported the story with the required video clips and voice over.
- Designed promos and teasers for the programs and coordinated with the editors by using the non linear platforms to attract viewers to the show.
- Maintained the working of the show to meet all deadlines and producing a good quality show.
- Researched the content for the show to make the story more interesting, incorporated music and images to the story.
- Monitored the production in accordance with the broadcast standards of the station.

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Broadcast Journalism, Everest College, Salt Lake City, UT

Build your Resume Now