
Travel Product Manager Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a position as Travel Product Manager with your company so that I can act on the skills and experience I have obtained in past positions.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Experience in managing sales and marketing, developing growth in revenue and managing all travel products
 - Expertise working on a travel e-commerce environment
 - Exceptional knowledge of world geography
 - Deep knowledge of Tour operator procedures
 - Remarkable ability to work in a team and without supervision
 - Ability to handle multiple projects at a given time
 - Proficient in managing all business relations and presentations
-

Professional Experience:

Travel Product Manager
Maritz Inc., Upper Arlington, OH
October 2008 – Present

- Developed and maintained good working relations with various suppliers.
- Determined competitive nature of all company products and recommended solutions to enhance it.
- Supervised all product availability prior to making sale.
- Maintained good working relationships with suppliers, managed to get all endorsements.
- Monitored all products and enhanced it various regions.
- Analyzed market progress reports and revenue targets.
- Ensured product updates communication to all reservation departments.
- Inspected descriptions for products mentioned on web and ensured accuracy.

Travel Product Director
Grand Circle Corporation, Upper Arlington, OH
August 2003 – September 2008

- Managed a team of product managers and developed plans to increase revenue from products.
- Developed product strategy and prepared a product roadmap with help of market research.
- Coordinated with Quality Assurance engineers, designers and developed various products.
- Prepared specifications for products and evaluated all specifications written by other members of team.
- Organized and interpreted all market trends.
- Assisted sales and marketing teams to launch various new products in market.

Travel Product Coordinator
IFMC, Upper Arlington, OH
May 1998 – July 2003

- Managed all products and uploaded it on reservation systems.
 - Coordinated with various teams and informed about new products.
 - Assisted reservation teams in determining prices and booking queries.
 - Determined product comparisons for products.
 - Helped marketing and sales team and provided product details for promoting products.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Hospitality
Cuesta College, San Luis Obispo, CA

Build your Resume Now