
TUV Functional Safety Engineer Resume

Job Objective

To secure a position as a TUV Functional Safety Engineer for your firm.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Outstanding knowledge of the design portion of project execution
 - Familiarity with location plans, loop diagrams, wiring diagrams and panel design
 - Solid knowledge of TUV and Cenelec requirements
 - Strong knowledge of Isolated Power Systems and Signal Isolation and Integrity
 - Ability to work with electrical parts, prototypes and systems
 - Ability to provide technical assistance and resolution to complex designs
-

Work Experience:

- TUV Functional Safety Engineer, 2007 – Present
 - TUV Rheinland of North America, Boxborough, MA
 - Created test reports and documented test results in reference to the performed assessments.
 - Developed and designed a variety of equipment, products, and automation systems for industrial purposes.
 - Provided innovative, safe, and effective solutions for patients.
 - Overseen production and reviewed orders for adequacy.
 - Calculated budget and evaluated design of equipment and systems for industrial applications.
-

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering, 2007, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA

Build your Resume Now