

---

Veterinary Nurse Resume

---

Job Objective

---

Seeking employment as a Veterinary Nurse.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Outstanding veterinary nursing experience especially working with animals
  - Huge knowledge of surgical procedures, maintaining sterility of instruments and hygienic environment
  - Solid understanding of Veterinary Department standards
  - Strong computer & IT skills
  - Remarkable ability to carry out minor surgeries
  - Outstanding ability to do the work independently
-

Professional Experience:

---

Veterinary Nurse, August 2005 – Present
West Chelsea Veterinary, Jersey City, NJ

- Conducted diagnostic tests and medical treatment under veterinary supervision.
- Monitored animals while the vet examines them and during treatment.
- Collected blood, urine and other samples and carried out in-house lab work.
- Performed sterilization of instruments and took x-rays.
- Conducted clinics for suture removal, post-operation checks and second vaccinations.
- Interpreted advice and information to owners about the care of their animals.

Veterinary Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
Pueblo Area Pet Emergency Hospital, Jersey City, NJ

- Planned and assisted weekly surgical and medical activities requiring intervention from the Manager of Veterinary Services.
  - Administered veterinary treatments provided to patients.
  - Ensured maintenance and updation clinical records by veterinary staff according to established protocols.
  - Conducted vaccination and de-worming for the animals with the Manager of Veterinary Services.
  - Supervised storage and maintenance of pharmaceutical items, cleaning materials and disinfectants.
  - Ensured cleanliness of clinical premises, hospital and quarantine wards and incineration facilities.
-

Education:

---

B.S in Health Sciences – Public Health, Siena Heights University, Adrian, MI

Build your Resume Now