

---

Veterinary Pathologist Resume

---

Job Objective

Highly dedicated Veterinary Pathologist seeking employment within your organization.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Wide experience in providing veterinary pathology services
  - Profound knowledge of investigative toxicology and pathology techniques
  - Exceptional knowledge of vertebrate gross and histopathology
  - Proficient with utilization of necropsy devices and other common medical equipment
  - Familiarity with serology techniques for animal pathogens
  - Ability to perform post mortem examinations
  - Ability to develop strategies to address specific toxicology issues
  - Ability to provide scientific guidance to laboratory staff
  - Ability to conduct service trainings to new hires
-

Professional Experience:

---

Veterinary Pathologist
Merck, Keene, NH
August 2007 – Present

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Coordinated with Researchers on protocol development activities.
  - Conducted full necropsies on research animals.
  - Performed gross pathology analysis of necropsies.
  - Performed histopathological and immunohistochemical analysis of infected animal tissues.
  - Assisted veterinary staffs in performing injections, phlebotomy and other treatments.
  - Prepared reports on clinical pathology findings.
-

Veterinary Pathologist
Fairway Consulting Group, Keene, NH
May 2004 – July 2007

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Performed laboratory tests for animal disease control.
  - Reported findings to Management and provided appropriate actions.
  - Conducted epidemiological studies and diagnostic pathology researches.
  - Maintained all research information up-to-date.
  - Reviewed laboratory programs and recommended improvements if any.
  - Supervised laboratory assistants and technicians as needed.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Veterinary Medicine
Missouri State University, Springfield, MO

---

Build your Resume Now