
VETERINARY TECHNICIAN RESUME

Summary:

An individual who has notable experience in animal care and veterinary equipment operations and management preparing animals, equipment and instruments for surgery; has special ability in intravenous feedings and tube feeding processes for animals; has great skill to define animal behaviors, conduct pathological tests and examinations, and provide specialized animal nursing care; excellent people skills and client management.

Professional Experience:

Senior Veterinary Technician August 2005 – Present
Angelus Animal Hospital, Pasadena, TX

Responsibilities:

- Worked as assistant to a licensed veterinarian and assisted Vet at the lab during surgeries.
- Conducted tests and helped in diagnosing illnesses and injuries of animals.
- Took laboratory tests, blood, prepared tissue samples for testing and performed urinalysis and blood counts.
- Advised pet owners on safety and health practices to ensure no disease is transmitted from animals to humans.
- Gave medications orally and topically to animals with injuries, diseases and contaminations.
- Documented pain and stress level tests of animals used for research and development, as well as medical histories.
- Provided medical treatments to animals under veterinary care with monitored supervision from the licensed veterinarian.
- Trained new interns and junior technicians in the equipment management and operations.

Veterinary Technician II May 1998 – July 2005
Georgetown Animal Clinic, Austin, TX

Responsibilities:

- Worked as an assistant to the licensed veterinarians in the clinic.
- Checked animal facilities and holding fences.
- Controlled and sedated animals for gathering of fluid and strain samples.
- Prepared diets and cleaned animal enclosures; assisted in the adequate care of young animals until adoption .
- Observed and documented animal behaviors, eating patterns and mating seasons.
- Conducted inventory and check in quality of veterinary drugs.
- Evaluated animal health problems, their causes, cure and prevention.

Veterinary Technician July 1994 – May 1998
Kerry Whitman Vet Industries, Beaumont, TX

Responsibilities:

- Worked as assistant to a licensed veterinarian and assisted Vet at the lab during surgeries.
- Conducted tests and helped in diagnosing illnesses and injuries of animals.
- Took laboratory tests, blood, prepared tissue samples for testing and performed urinalysis and blood counts.
- Advised pet owners on safety and health practices to ensure no disease is transmitted from animals to humans.
- Gave medications orally and topically to animals with injuries, diseases and contaminations.
- Documented pain and stress level tests of animals used for research and development, as well as medical histories.
- Provided medical treatments to animals under veterinary care with monitored supervision from the licensed veterinarian.
- Trained new interns and junior technicians in the equipment management and operations.

Veterinary Technician II May 1998 – July 2005
Georgetown Animal Clinic, Austin, TX

Education:

1990 – 1994 Associate Degree in the Veterinary Technology
Rice University, TX
1994 Registered Veterinary Technician
Rice University, TX

Skills:

- Client-management skills

- Data management and bookkeeping skills
- Outstanding research, reporting and business correspondence skills
- Pathology and machinery operations management
- Significant knowledge of treatment medicines, animal behavior and control of common infections in animals

Associations/Organizations:

Texas Veterinary Medical Association, Member

Texas Association of Registered Veterinary Technicians, Member

Build your Resume Now