
VIDEO ENGINEER RESUME

Summary:

A highly experienced professional with exposure in TV and video broadcasting and has expertise in the configuration, calibration and programming of various elements in the operations in broadcast television; has provided the best technical expertise in the field of engineering and can effectively operate and troubleshoot equipment and handle complex installations; has an in-depth understanding regarding the operations and management of both television and video broadcasting, and has worked with known and reputable broadcasting companies; has good verbal communication skills and interpersonal relations which contribute in building harmonious relationship between colleagues to further increase productivity and management of critical operations.

Professional Experience:

Video Engineer October 2008 – Present
Boxed Out Television Network, Atlanta, GA

Responsibilities:

- Supervised and monitored airing of a number of programs.
- Ensured that video and audio output met quality standards.
- Carried out technology projects based on requirements of the network.
- Performed productive operations and assisted in the management of certain technical requests.
- Troubleshooted, managed and repaired necessary technology equipment to ensure reliable network operations and maintain client's trust.
- Updated self with the latest technology enhancements applicable and beneficial in improving network operations.

Associate in Video Production/Recording Audio Engineering January 2008 – August 2008
D3 Multimedia, Augusta, GA

Responsibilities:

- Scheduled and carried out routine maintenance activities to ensure that equipment is working efficiently and in their excellent conditions.
- Assisted and evaluated new equipment installations and repairs.
- Consulted the operations manager on some suggestions, better approaches and options to improve and modify current setup.
- Recommended and furnished the department head with detailed specifications for product enhancements and equipment upgrades geared towards improvement in operations and increased employee productivity.
- Conducted visual presentations to management to effectively convey proposals.

Trainee/Intern October 2007 – December 2007
Les Paul Studios, Augusta, GA

Responsibilities:

- Supervised and monitored airing of a number of programs.
- Ensured that video and audio output met quality standards.
- Carried out technology projects based on requirements of the network.
- Performed productive operations and assisted in the management of certain technical requests.
- Troubleshooted, managed and repaired necessary technology equipment to ensure reliable network operations and maintain client's trust.
- Updated self with the latest technology enhancements applicable and beneficial in improving network operations.

Associate in Video Production/Recording Audio Engineering January 2008 – August 2008
D3 Multimedia, Augusta, GA

Education:

2003- 2007 Bachelor of Science Degree in Electronics Engineering Technology
Rockefeller University, NY

Skills:

- Radvision Certified for IP Video Conferencing, 2008
- Good management of multiple projects and tasks
- Excellent knowledge in broadcast television technology networks
- Professional expertise in troubleshooting, repair and programming
- Good communication skills
- Can motivate people and foster good working relationships even at time of increased workloads and time pressure
- Useful attention to detail

Affiliations:

Engineers without Borders (Illinois), Member

Build your Resume Now