
Visiting Professor Resume

Job Objective

To obtain the position of Visiting Professor where I can fully use my teaching skills and help students succeed.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in teaching assigned courses in college on part-time basis
 - Sound knowledge of instructional techniques
 - Profound knowledge of classroom functions
 - Familiarity with student assessment practices
 - Ability to maintain good rapport with students and faculty
 - Ability to organize faculty meetings
 - Ability to organize, prepare, and revise and update all course materials.
 - Ability to motivate students to achieve academic goals
-

Professional Experience:

Visiting Professor
University of Alabama, Tipton, MI
August 2007 – Present

- Developed course curriculum and contents.
- Monitored student's progress and provided feedbacks for improvements.
- Provided assignments and homework for students.
- Drafted examination papers and graded student tests.
- Engaged students in class discussions, seminars and quizzes.
- Addressed academic and teaching issues promptly.
- Assisted in college administration duties as needed.
- Ensured that students followed dress, attendance, discipline and academic policies.

Visiting Professor
Manhattan College, Tipton, MI
May 2004 – July 2007

- Developed online course models as per college policies.
 - Conducted educational workshops for students.
 - Maintained tutorials for web-posting.
 - Ensured interactive learning environment for students.
 - Maintained records of student progress and attendance.
 - Utilized latest technologies for teaching purposes.
-

Education:

PhD in Social Work
Northwestern Health Sciences University, Bloomington, MN
Master's Degree in Social Work
Sierra Nevada College, Incline Village, NV

Build your Resume Now