

WATER POLLUTION CONTROL INSPECTOR RESUME

Summary:

A professional who is experienced in enforcement processes and implementation and adherence to various laws, regulations, policies and procedures; has performed a variety of inspection and regulatory duties in businesses, departments and agencies he worked for throughout his career as a public and private sector representative in terms of environmental concerns; has been involved in the checking of sanitary conditions of restaurants, hotels, schools, hospitals and other public facilities or institutions; has thoroughly handled investigations of reported outbreaks of diseases and poisonings resulting from spoiled food supplies and non-compliance to environmental regulations; has participated in conducting of surveys and monitoring programs set forth by the natural environment to identify sources of pollution.

Professional Experience:

Corporate Manager, Environmental Services January 2007 – Present
AmerisourceBergen Corporation, Albany, NY

Responsibilities:

- Created and directed company-wide environmental sustainability efforts and managed evaluation results of rolled-out activities.
- Secured sustainable compliance of environment initiatives by enforcing company-wide standards and programs.
- Monitored company operations to manage the certification compliance requirements based on local laws and regulations.
- Created and implemented activities to manage and lessen company's environmental unfavorable standing and liabilities.
- Facilitated the company's environmental activities through pollution-prevention and planting efforts to the local community.
- Organized and monitored projects to support company-wide sustainability efforts for the environment such as profiling, collation of external responses, reports and observations.
- Conducted inventories of resources usage and reduction projects, environmental prevention and weather change programs.

Environmental Protection Specialist May 2004 – December 2006
CHASE Professionals, Albany, NY

Responsibilities:

- Acted as program manager and expert on environment and natural resources support for aviation and military weapon systems.
- Established and liaised environmental programs for dissemination purposes to both public and private sector.
- Conferred with managers, executive and team leaders for company requirements and budget analysis for comparative data of financial standing.
- Conceptualized plans, established short and long-term plans for environmental projects and ensures adherence to company priorities.
- Provided technical advice to resolve problems and reviewed work for technical adequacy and compliance with company policies and procedures.
- Spearheaded the task group to secure continuous, implementation and enhancement of minimization strategies.

EHS Coordinator February 1999 – May 2004
First McKesson Albany, NY

Responsibilities:

- Created and directed company-wide environmental sustainability efforts and managed evaluation results of rolled-out activities.
- Secured sustainable compliance of environment initiatives by enforcing company-wide standards and programs.
- Monitored company operations to manage the certification compliance requirements based on local laws and regulations.
- Created and implemented activities to manage and lessen company's environmental unfavorable standing and liabilities.
- Facilitated the company's environmental activities through pollution-prevention and planting efforts to the local community.
- Organized and monitored projects to support company-wide sustainability efforts for the environment such as profiling, collation of external responses, reports and observations.
- Conducted inventories of resources usage and reduction projects, environmental prevention and weather change programs.

Environmental Protection Specialist May 2004 – December 2006

Education:

Masters Degree in Environmental Pollution Control, University of Iowa, IA, 1999
Bachelor in Engineering, Rockefeller University, NY, 1997

Skills:

- Knowledge of the principles and practices of sediment and erosion control
 - Knowledge of both onsite and offsite conditions that impact the quality of storm water discharges
 - Ability to inspect installed bases and perform management practices
 - Ability to communicate and report regarding inspection activities
 - Excellent management and leadership skills
 - Excellent written, oral and presentation skills
-

Professional Affiliation:

Water Pollution Control Commission American Payroll Institute, member
Water Pollution Control Association, member

Build your Resume Now