
Water Truck Driver Resume

Job Objective

Qualified Water Truck Driver seeking work with an established company where I can put my driving skills and knowledge to good use

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Familiarity with Department of Transportation rules, regulations, and logging requirements
 - Ability to read and interpret safety rules, operating and maintenance instructions, procedure manuals and government regulations
 - Ability to drive water truck and vacuum truck to rig sites in a safe manner
 - Ability to set priorities, multi-task, resolve problems and manage time
 - Ability to maintain personal truck logs and vehicle inspection reports
 - Ability to stay alert as to make safe decisions and use proper judgment
 - Ability to operate a forklift to lift equipment
-

Professional Experience:

Water Truck Driver

Western Summit Constructors, Inc., Houston, TX

August 2005 – Present

- Regularly hauled and transported pipe materials and equipment.
- Properly handled, loaded/unloaded, secured and hauled several types of loads.
- Recorded and maintained all DOT and WSCI paperwork.
- Ensured accuracy in driver's HOS logs, trip sheets and WSCI equipment numbers.
- Performed regular maintenance and maintained transport equipment in clean, current and well equipped mode.
- Regularly monitored and reported mechanical issues with equipment.
- Climbed steel framework, stairs, ladders and scaffolds.
- Properly responded to all safety hazards and warning devices.

Water Truck Driver

Superior, Houston, TX

May 2000 – July 2005

- Conducted pre-trip inspection..
 - Drove water truck to rig sites in a safe manner.
 - Connected water truck hose to portable tank rented by clients.
 - Turned on pump and fills rented tank with water.
 - Interacted and worked with co-workers and technicians at all times.
-

Education:

High School Diploma

Abingdon High School, Abingdon, IL

Build your Resume Now