
Web Application Developer Resume

Job Objective

Looking for an opportunity to work as a Web Application Developer for a reputed company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong accomplished experience in web application development
 - Solid expertise in developing projects using Action Script 2 and 3
 - Huge knowledge Ajax, HTML/CSS, JavaScript, Flash, ColdFusion and MS SQL development
 - In depth understanding of cross browser issues, CSS, W3C standards
 - Outstanding ability to create and edit graphics
 - Remarkable ability to solve technical problem creatively
-

Professional Experience:

Web Application Developer
Debonair, Inc., Troy, MI
July 2006 – Present

- Identified business solution to enhance performance of computer software.
- Developed, installed, and maintained complex business applications and solutions.
- Developed tools and procedures and gathered like data to support development.
- Coordinated with other department to support and implement existing production systems and business solutions.
- Analyzed and resolved complex system problems and business system procedures.
- Maintained system performance level and ensured efficient resource usage.

Web Application Developer
Derby Corporation, Troy, MI
May 2002 – June 2006

- Prepared cost benefit analysis summaries of new and enhanced changes for assigned projects in order to cost justify changes.
 - Designed systems documentation and assisted development work teams.
 - Conducted walkthroughs to coordinate large system tests.
 - Trained and mentored junior staff.
 - Developed, installed, and maintained complex business applications in accordance with corporate standards.
 - Developed tools and procedures to support development.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science
Lindenwood University, Missouri, MO

Build your Resume Now