
Web Application Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a position in which challenges lead way for career development in the Web Application Engineer field.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in building web applications and extensive practicality in web user interfaces programming
 - Profound knowledge with Web application servers and PHP
 - In-depth knowledge of client side of web applications including DOM and Java Script
 - Familiarity with SOAP, JSON, RDBMS database, SOA, DHTML, XHTML, AJAX, XML, CSS, WebLogic, and Web Sphere web servers
 - Skilled in Oracle, JavaScript, Visual Studio, C#, Perl and shell scripts
 - Excellent programming and designing skills
 - Superior communication, organizational and problem-solving skills
-

Professional Experience:

Web Application Engineer, August 2005 – Present
IrisLogic, Norfolk, VA

- Encouraged the use of Web and Database applications and coordinated with project management.
- Assisted human interface designers to outline the user interface.
- Enforced application logic, database access and Web user interface.
- Developed the core application infrastructure.

Web Application Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Triplt, Inc., Norfolk, VA

- Formulated and outlined the application structures, API's and database schemas.
 - Maintained and documented the enterprise software.
 - Developed standards, procedures and tools throughout the software advancement life cycle.
 - Reviewed system functional and performance needs to support design architectures.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Sinte Gleska University, Rosebud, SD

Build your Resume Now